

Romance is Totally Dead

THE LANDLORD

Words and Music By Sierra Blanco

Arranged for Piano By Matthew J Russell

Freely

Brisk Waltz ♩ = 160

What-ev - er

8 ha - ppened to driv - ing 'em home? or a moon - lit walk hold - ing hands and no phones

15 Now they break up through a pi - zza and note! I'd nev - ver do an - y of that!

A

22

Where are the soul - mates of old as of late? with kiss - es on 28

cheeks at the end of first dates Now one night stands will co - hab - it -

B

34

tate! I'd ne - ver do an - y of that! Now they pro -

40

claim that chi - val - ry's dead and fall - ing in love is a phase

46

When I was young love was a pro - mise a - head but now peo - ple throw it a - way! So what - ev - er hap - pened to 60

C

53

fall - ing in love? Your heart fly - ing high on the wings of a dove? That's how it should be but when push comes to shove it seems ro-mance is to - tall - y dead!

D

73

and no - bo - dy should dare try to wed! 'cause you'll lose all your lov-ing in - stead _____ and I'd ne - ver! risk a - ny! of that _____

80

88

88